ASGC Golf Fore Autism Raises Money for Support, Education and S.T.A.R. Summer Camp

Independence, OH – The Autism Society of Greater Cleveland (ASGC) will host the 1st Annual “ASGC Golf Fore Autism” at the Briarwood Golf Club in Broadview Heights on Saturday, May 1, 2021 from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Our event promises to be an exciting experience with 18 holes of golf, golf cart, commemorative gift, lunch, dinner, and drinks. Shotgun start begins 9:00 a.m. (rain or shine).

Every year, thousands of families will begin a lifelong journey with Autism. This event helps provide services to the 1 in 59 children diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Money raised is used locally in Northeast Ohio area to help support, educate and raise Autism awareness. ASGC will provide 25% of the profits from the Golf outing to S.T.A.R. Summer Camp. S.T.A.R. Camp is a private, non-profit organization that provides an inclusive camp for students with disabilities and typical peers. S.T.A.R. Camp’s goal is for individuals with disabilities and typical peers to participate in recreational, academic and social activities in an inclusive environment. In 2019, S.T.A.R. Camp hosted over 200 participants ranging in ages from 3 to 22.

The Autism Society of Greater Cleveland is one of the over 100 affiliates nationwide dedicated to increasing awareness about Autism and the day-to-day challenges faced by people with Autism, their families and the professionals with whom they interact.
